I suppose that some are marked rather high, others I think low,

Considering rarity etc.
As far as I know Nos 18 & 19 are complete. I am aware that a similar piece of 3d value was issued, but as far as I know it was only issued as an essay & not in the metal in which stamps to be issued.

I can only make a Commission of 5% on the list
as arranged by you

Dear Sir,

Your telegram reached here this P. M. and in compliance with your request I send to-morrow A. M. a package containing the major part of the rare coins advertised in Sept "Numisma". Since the orders are coming in I will ask you as a personal favor to return as soon as you possibly can such coins as you may not wish to purchase. Make up a package of those you know you shall not want and return at once; those you wish to think about etc keep not over 3 or 4 days & by so doing you will greatly oblige me. I never wish to press my customers but in this instance the orders will come in every day and each expects to receive what ever he orders without delay.

I add the rare 1838 O half advertised in July Numisma & '36 proof half. These you can retain as long as you please. —
Under the supposition that you may make a pretty large selection I will offer you a concession of 2½ % on the gold if you take $100. or more of 5% on the silver if you take $100. worth and of 7½ % (on the silver) if you take $250 or more.
I will state that it would be difficult to duplicate a large number of the coins sent, even abroad. The large pieces all came from a small collection abroad bought entire by me & made by a gentlemen who collected only over from and over the double crown size & he was a long time in forming this collection. I am Sir
T. H. Garrett Esq very respectfully yrs

Dear Sir

I am in receipt of your Cheque of $ 359.81 in full to date, for which please to accept my thanks.

I am perfectly satisfied that 1195 was charged you erroneously at $ 5. especially as that No is a crown at $ 2.75., and yet I went over that list with great care twice! which shows how much care has to be exercised in this coin business.

Thanking you for past favors and with the hope that I shall again be able to procure or offer some desiderata for your cabinet

I am very resp. Yours

Dear Sir,

I regret delay in replying to your favors. 3 catalogues of Coin Sales to prepare, Numisma for January, besides 4 or 5 hours each day devoted to my ordinary occupation as a teacher have completely filled up my time. I have nothing or next to nothing in Cents at present, (except my cabinet of 1794 cents, not for sale) but add to lots forwarded this day from New York Coins &c a few very rare and fine Colonial Coins. My descriptions are necessarily short, but I hope sufficiently intelligible to locate each Coin:

Dear Sir,

I fear that if I do not reply to your favor at once that time will elapse before I can do so. To-morrow I have a sale at Bangs & Co., then come in quick succession the Britton and Smith sales.

The small package of American Coins sent you on approval was not my property, and the prices were not fixed by me. I agree that most of them were too high, and some I did not send at all because they were altogether too high.

As regards the Immune Columbia in silver, the only one I believe out of lot you kept for further examination, I do not think then the price is high, as the owner invoiced it to me at less than cost.
It is the finest and I believe the only strictly fine impression known and originally came to me from Le-gras cabinet invoiced at 500 francs.
but of course I did not pay that much for it. — If the price pleases you you may retain it at $ Co. — which is its cost to me, or what I have to pay owner in case of sale.
The other coins from stock I marked at as low rates as cost would warrant; if there are any among those returned that you would like at slightly lower rates, please specify the nos and if I can possibly make reductions I will do so, but the coins have gone up so that I really marked as I did to very close and the reductions would be slight. Very respectfully Yours

Irvington, N. Y., February 20 1883

Dear Sir, I beg acknowledge receipt of your favor of yesterday with chq.$ 521.55 in full of account to date and for which please accept my thanks. On or before Monday next I will send you a package containing balance of crowns etc wanted, also the # 50 Cal. 1858 wound, and a number of rare Colonial Coins. Most of them were at the time bought by me for a gentleman who now relinquishes the Colonial Coinage to perfect his set of U.S. Silver & Copper Coins. I shall beg you to keep the track of my sending you these private as I propose to advertise them in March Numisma if you do not purchase and do not want coin dealers to know that prices on them have been fixed or the coins submitted to any one. The Rosa Americ[illegible] Feuting lately sent you is a good sample of these coins and I was surprised you did not take as in uncirculated condition it is one of the rarest of American Coins. I am glad you got some of the coins at Leavitt sale & are pleased with them; they sold generally at very fair rates — our N. Y. friends interested in their so-called coin-boom do not attend my sales, and in fact do every thing to prevent their success, but I am not at all sorry as it brings me directly in correspondence with bona-fide buyers & if the prices are not quite so high they are nevertheless satisfactory.

Very respectfully Yours

Those marked "B" are from Bushnell sale. I will remark that the Brasher doubloon sold comparatively very low. My bid on it from present owner was $ 1000. or less (inclusive of 5% com.) Mass. Cent arrows right claw is much finer than the one in Bushnell on which buyers generally cancules their bids. I know when the one in Bushnell sale is & can prove by actual comparison. Prices in all instances have been fixed at lowest possible points and there can be no abatement upon them unless you should decide to take lot which I would call $ 1200.00 In the hands of Smith, Scott, and others the Brasher doubloon alone would be made to yield $ 1200 or more at auction (See fancy prices late sales). I offer you this valuable coin with the expectation not to see again unless I should some time have the pleasure to inspect your collection or get up a Catalogue for you. I ought really in future to own to offer the lot from B. sale collectively at a fixed price, but I leave the matter in your hands

Irvington, N. Y., February 27 1883

Dear Sir, Your favor of 26 inst with cheque for $ 145.50 in full to date, also Coins returned, duly received. Please accept my thanks for your promptness.

When I bought at the Bushnell sale for the present owner of doubloon I had many other orders from him which remained unfilled, because we thought they sold too high, and I limited my bids to what might be considered as good but not extravagant prices for rarities. There can of course be an honest difference of opinion as regards the value of the Doubloon but I believe that with the exception of the 1804 dollar it is the most desirable and valuable of all American coins. Its sale will only be a question of time. The piece will be offered in the Mch number of Numisma and any offer from you for it (& the others) will be at once communicated to owner. In the meanwhile I am authorized if I can get $ 700. to take $ 650. which I respectfully communicate to you. In the event of no buyer being found through an ad. in Numisma, it is barely possible that the piece will be offered at auction in the sale.

Very respectfully Yours

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favor of the 6 inst., I will state that since you returned me the Colonial Coins I have not offered them to any one, hence can state and you the "New York" in America at $ 12.50, hence to refund, or if we can come to an understanding, the entire lot forwarded you on approval.

I am authorized by the owner to use my judgment in disposing of all these fine coins, and I think yet that by making slight concessions to each other we could ~~yet~~ come to an understanding. — I am prepared to sell you the entire lot for about what I understand Scott has said he could obtain for the doubloon alone if it had been placed in his hands for sale instead of mine.

Irvington, N. Y., March 14 1883

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favor of 12 inst. I have carefully revised the list of rare Colonial coins as follows:

Brasher doubloon	$ 600.-
N. E. Sixpence	65.-
Mass. Cent arrows left	37.50
Carolina Elephant	80.-
Rugio; name of State	80.-
Immuni Col.	50.-
Pine tree 1650	42.50
Vermont 1785	8.00
	$ 963.00

The lot $ 950.-

This I think is the very best I am authorized to do.

Dear Sir,

I will communicate your offer to owner of coins, but scarcely think he will accept, it being considerably under actual cost of coins.

I expect shortly an invoice of Coins & Medals. There is a lot of 56 crowns of early dates mostly in very fine condition; also a number of the large Brunswick, gold, English coins, etc.

Shall I send you on selection on approval?

Very resp. Yours

Dear Sir, Your favor of 27 reached yesterday A. M. but have been unable to reply sooner. I am glad you keep the Immune Columbia at $60. & think that you will eventually consider it as one of your cheapest & most desirable acquisitions. To judge from the excessively high prices paid yesterday at Burton's sale the tendency of prices for fine American Coins is decidedly upwards. Never have I seen such a concourse of buyers and such prices realized.

The # 50 round California gold will be mailed & sent on approval at first opportunity

In regard to your queries about certain Nos of the Coins submitted you, I will say that considering the liberal selection announced by your favor of 25— I will let you have

32	#	5.—	reduced to	4.50
44	"	3.—	" "	2.50
69	"	10.—	" "	9.00

307	"	8.—	" "	7.00
315	"	8.—	" "	7.00

Add these Nos to the list sent me by your favor of 25 and take off the 5% on whole, except of course the Immune Col. & Ohio. Cromwell crown, both of which I have sold you at cost.

Irvington, N. Y., March 31 1883

Sear Sir, Your favor of 30th reached me this evening. I regret that several of the nos. wanted had already been sold, but shall express to you on Monday the following:

4 4.50 2.50 3.50 3.50 4
1454 1458 1462 1463 1464 1467 $ 22.—

also take the liberty of adding on approval:

1456 sig 28 not 24. a rare variety 7.50

$ 29.50

If you take these it will close out the lot except 1486 of no special account.

In regard to Colonial Coins, - immediately on receipt of your offer I communicated the same to owner, adding on my own responsibility that the gentleman who wanted to buy might possibly accept the compromise of $75. (half way between your offer & his price) if he would authorize me to sell at this figure. Up to this evening I have not heard one word from him, but if you should accede to this, telegraph to me and I will telegraph to him & get a final assent or denial. In the meanwhile & until I see that no understanding can be reached I will not sell a piece out of the lot you wanted, while you of course are not under obligation to take them, and this arrangement you will, I am sure, consider very fair.

The 1854 & 55 proof sets (latter lacks quarter) I will sell you for $150. — it seems to be an open secret that $100. has been offered for a proof set of 1855 in a coming sale, hence the price may not be deemed extravagant.

My agent in sending me the Commune medals which I added to the Palmer sale wrote as follows: "Frappés de jour en jour pendant le siège; — malgré les horreurs de la guerre et de la famine, les amateurs s'assemblaient journellement et attendaient qu'on en frappât de nouvelles. Comme série complète, unique."

Nevertheless I had previously obtained other Commune medals, both of different workmanship and size — some satyrical against Napoleon III & William of Prussia. One which I kept and now have in my small cabinet is a trial impression of an obverse on a lead planchet. Pegasus in the center, around which in 2 lines:

"Cheval Pégase, né du sang qui jaillit de la tête de Méduse
" Paris affamé devore sa chair pendant que repose sa mère"

R F

Siége de Paris 1870

This in allusion to the horse flesh diet of the Parisians during the siege.

About next Friday I shall send you a small but fine selection from a lot just received. Have not yet had time to assort them & will not till Thursday

I am sir

Irvington, N. Y., April 4 1883

Dear Sir,

Your dispatch was duly received but I could not then accede to your offer of $850 for the lot of Colonial Coins. This morning I am in receipt of a communication from him, authorising me to accept the amount suggested by me to him as a compromise, i.e. $875. This concession on his part brings you so near together that unless I hear from you to the contrary I will send you the lot on Friday at the price of $875. and together with a fine selection of Coins in gold & silver from a lot just received

I really think you are getting a most desirable lot of Coins at very low rates. I am sure that Smith Coulds have got $1000 for the doubloon alone
through Scott at a public sale, and several dealers have assured me that they have customers who would pay $700 for this piece

By a few days delay I can make a better selection of Ancient Coins than I could to-day. Because I yesterday left a number of fine gold coins with a New York friend for his assistance in their classification. Generally speaking I can do as well with Ancient Coins as with foreign, and I noticed in Smith's recent sales a number of Greek that were sold by me to a New York dealer at much less than half what they sold at auction.

In a week or less you will receive a selection from me, comprising several fine aurei of early Roman Emperors, etc. Very respectfully Yours Ed Frossard

Sear Sir,

I send you herewith

Virginia Shilling

This piece belongs to a Mr Lawrence, a N. Y. Banker, who took it in payment of an old debt. Having seen the prices at which they sold he wants # 100. for the piece which I think considering its condition is too much. If you want it, make an offer which I will communicate to him

I also add on approval

P. S. If you cannot do any better, I should be pleased to attend to any of your bids at coming sales in New York, especially in the sale of H. G. Sampson which will contain very fine cents and desirable Foreign crowns. Having catalogued these for him I can personally vouch for correctness of descriptions. On purchases amounting to say $ 100 or more I charge a small com. and I buy at lowest possible rates, and always endeavor to do my customers full justice. I do not attend all N. Y. sales, but do so whenever I have sufficient bids to make it any object. The Sampson sale (catal not yet out) I shall certainly attend.

Will exchange from a y Stock P. M.

Irvington, N. Y., April 30 1883

Dear Sir,

Your favor of 28 duly received this A. M. I thought that I was making a good offer on the coins you forwarded me for inspection, but of course they may have cost much more. My estimate was based upon what I could actually receive for the coins viz. about $ 150. and I doubt if they would bring more than that at auction. I should in my last have said (which I forgot) that in the event of you not accepting my offer, I would place in a sale, at lowest possible cost to you, and this offer remains open to you if you wish to avail yourself of it.

The prices on the gold coins of my last invoice were net; on the silver, bronze, etc, I can allow you 10% = $ 8.80 (total gr. Silver, Rom & Lo. Copy cat $88.) (gold $ 167.50 net), which is a liberal discount.—

The Virginia shilling is the property of Mr. Cyrus W. Lawrence, Member N. Y. Num. Society a Wall Street Banker & a gentleman after highest honor. I believe he got this piece from a coin dealer. Of course the piece is guaranteed. I did not examine it with the same care that I would had it come from some other quarter. Any thing suspicious about it? If so pray return & I will examine myself again & let others examine it.

I have been for sale a Colonial Coin of the highest rarity & in very fine condition.
Crosby p. 321 cut 6x or obverse Indian "Libertas natus Libertatem defendo"
Rev. "Nec Eboracus" Eagle on section of globe (B) on page 322 Mr Crosby says
"We can call to mind but three with rev. B. but can place only those of Mr Appleton & Mr Bushnell"
Now on turning to the Bushnell catal. I cannot find this coin; it certainly is not 886, 887. it is 888 with another reverse, so that either Mr Crosby erred in stating that Bushnell had it, or the coin was taken out before the sale, and is now in Mr Parmelee's cabinet, which is quite probable.
If you want this, I will request not to offer elsewhere for the present. Price not yet fixed but it will probably not be less than $250.-

Very respectfully Yours

Dear Sir,

On Saturday I received from you a Cheque of $ 255, 50 , $ 8.80 more than due, as I allowed you 10% on the Silver and Copper. This stands to your Credit.

Please let me know at your convenience if you Keep the 2 Venitian gold. They are not my property, but belong to a New York party; I sent them to you because I consider them desirable acquisitions for any Cabinet.

The chief object of the present is to tell you that I received a telegram from owner of "Libertatem defendo", rev. eagle on segment of globe, asking me to withhold the Coin, if not sold (for the present)

I have just received a very fine invoice of Foreign Modern & Ancient Coins Gold & Silver. It will take me a few days to arrange, etc. If you want to see the entire invoice, except such coins that I know you have, poor, common etc, it is at your orders. There are more beautiful gold coins of Roman Emperors than I have yet seen; also many beautiful Tetradrachms & splendid modern coins.

Irvington, N. Y., May 8 1883

Dear Sir,

Your favor of yesterday duly received. I will make up a package of (our line) Coins and forward the same on approval about the 15 inst.

The "Libertatis Natus Defends" rev. Eagle on segment of globe, is the property of a gentleman who during the last 3 years has gradually disposed of his Coins through me at private sale. He sent this with a large & Unique Washington ten medal in silver, and before positive a price had been fixed telegraphed to me to withdraw the piece. I have not since heard from him, but will no doubt.

The Virginia shilling is the property of Mr Cyrus - Lawrence, 31 Broadst New York. He told me that he wanted $100. net for it, which is too much. If you have found the piece to be perfectly satisfactory, I would suggest that you offer me $50 for it. I will communicate to him the offer and we can then ascertain if he feels disposed to sell and what his lowest price is

Dear Sir,

I send you per Ex this day the largest & finest selection of Coins I ever sent on approval, being the entire invoice received by me from Europe, except duplicates, poor coins, or such that I know you already have. The gold coins are net; the others, Bronze and Silver I will allow you 5% on $ 200. to 400. and 7½% on $ 400. or more, which is applying very closely & I hope you will find very many wants. In quality these coins cannot be excelled & I have marked in each case as low as possible.

Irvington, N. Y., May 18 1883

Dear Sir.

Mr Lawrence does not wish to take less than $100.— for the "Virginia shilling" and as in the event of his not selling at this price he will probably make a present of the piece to our N.Y. Numismatic society, it would be well perhaps to let him have his way.

I do not consider the piece worth $100., as it is not a brilliant or even uncirculated pie

And I have no doubt that at some future time you will be able to buy one perhaps better for less money.

There is no hurry about returning the piece (if returned) You can do so when you send back coins (as I suppose you will) from my last invoice.

Irvington, N. Y., June 19 1883

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favor of 18 inst I will say that the U. S. Quarter of 1796 is in that condition for which almost any price would not seem extravagant, and I could with equal prospect of selling have marked it $ 50.00 even $ 60. It is the quarter of my June 25 sale, bought by me then at $ 34 and for which I have since been offered $ 40. by a Coin dealer, who would certainly have obtained not less than $ 50 for it, if not much more. I regret that I cannot make a reduction on this piece; considering its condition, it is really cheap at $ 40.— and I hope You will keep it.

On the Pound piece I will make You a reduction of $ 5. and You may have at $ 50. The Author catal. is no special standard of value, but rather what Foreign dealers ask. I saw one lately in N. Y. which cost its owner Marks 200 abroad not to be compared with mine in condition.

With the hope that this reduction will be deemed satisfactory,

I am Sir
Very respectfully Yrs
E. Frossard

S. Harrison Garrett Esq.

Your favor of the 18th inst. duly rec'd. I regret that I cannot make a reduction on the price of the Quarter of 1796 which I offered you at $ 50.00 as I have already refused $ 40. for the coin since I purchased it at my sale June 25 and I consider it cheap at the price. Kindly return it to me at your earliest convenience.

Dear Sir,

Last evening I received one package of coins returned, from which I find that you have retained the following nos.

No 81	3.—
" 102	4.50
" 106	4.—
" 108	4.—
" 155	3.—
" 170	1.—	Total $ 19.50

From the above you see that the package advised by your favor of the 18 to have been sent on that day has, so far, not reached me, hence I cannot reply to your query of 19th about the discount I can allow, but be sure that as soon as package reaches me I will at once examine etc & will give you the most liberal terms I can, as I infer from your favor (19) that you have retained quite a number.

Considering the fact that the 20 package reached me first, No one must have been unexpectedly delayed or perhaps have gone astray. I would suggest that you direct inquiries at the Express Office from which shipped (Adams?)

When I ship you coins I generally send from Adams Ex. in New York, but all your packages are transfered in N. Y. to the American, the only line that reaches this point, hence I cannot make inquiries from here, as they know nothing of the packages sent by other Express lines.

Very respectfully

No 89 I sent this day per Adams Ex. In your favor of 23 you say "would have taken several other pieces but think prices too high" Should you have kept mem. of Nos I will make a revision, if I can. Most of this fine invoice I fear will have to go back abroad as the market for fine Coins & Medals at this time is extremely dull here. I am told by a gentleman who posts that fine coins especially ancient bring higher prices in Paris & London than N.Y.

Very respectfully Yours

Dear Sir,

I beg acknowledge receipt of your favor of 30th ulto. with cheque in full to date, for which I enclose receipts bill. Thanks!

I send you per Ex. this day a lot of Coins and Medals on approval with prices as per annexed sheet, and hope that you may find quite a number.

If you have 2 Stars cents of 1794, I hope that you will send me your duplicate. My customer is the gentleman who, at the time of my Oct 2-3 sale, telegraphed (dispatch received too late) to buy the set of 1794 cents at # 500! ; He is very anxious to have one make up another set, and I am on a fair way of accomplishing the task, but unless I can secure the "Stars" from some cabinet like yours, I see no prospect of placing that rare variety in the set!

The Coins & Medals are all made at net prices

Very respectfully Yours

My dear Sir,

I have a unique Willow Tree Shilling, seen by Crosby & pronounced genuine by him, which I would like to submit to you before offering elsewhere.

The shilling has been in the same Col. for 30 years & never offered to any prominent Collector.

Very respectfully Yrs
Ed. Frossard

F. H. Jarrett Esq

P. S. The price asked is $100. I may offer it for a little less
